

Community Foundation of Greater Fort Wayne Steinger Center Conference Room Policy

Board Approved: 2/14/08

The Steinger Center for the Community Foundation of Greater Fort Wayne was built in part to be a community resource for groups to come together and meet. We are pleased that you would like to use our facility. However, in order to maintain the beautiful nature of this facility and make it available to as many groups as possible, the Community Foundation Board of Directors has established the following guidelines:

1. General Information. Permission to use the Steinger Center is not an endorsement of the user by the Community Foundation of Greater Fort Wayne.

Publicity for a meeting that is not sponsored or co-sponsored by the Community Foundation must not be worded in a manner which states or implies Community Foundation sponsorship. Organizations may use the street address of the Community Foundation as the meeting location in publicity materials. A line stating "...at the Community Foundation of Greater Fort Wayne" is allowed on printed materials. However, the name, address, or telephone number of the Community Foundation must not be used as the official address or headquarters of the organization.

The Community Foundation logo must not be used in publicity materials.

2. Priority for Use of Meeting Rooms. Community Foundation committee and board meetings will have the highest priority for the use of meeting rooms in the facility. Other organizations may use meeting rooms when they are available and the activities of the organizations do not conflict with other activities planned by the Community Foundation.

Rooms will be available only to local nonprofit organizations, not individuals, for business related meetings (i.e. private parties, religious services, sales solicitations, etc.) are not permitted. In addition, the grounds of the Community Foundation cannot be used for events where the primary purpose is fundraising (i.e. car washes, rummage sales, galas, silent auctions, gambling events, etc.)

The final decision on who may use the facilities is vested with the Community Foundation Executive Director. The Community Foundation reserves the right to deny meeting rooms to any organization based on the priorities of the Community Foundation and reserves the right to amend this policy as it sees fit.

3. Availability of Meeting Rooms. The meeting rooms are available to local nonprofit organizations without charge Monday through Friday between 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. All meeting participants must vacate the Community Foundation premises by 4:45 p.m. Meetings must not incur costs and/or liability to the Community Foundation (i.e. long distance phone charges, etc.).

In the event of inclement weather, the Community Foundation reserves the right to cancel a scheduled meeting. It is the responsibility of the organization to contact the meeting participants regarding a weather related cancellation. The Community Foundation will work with you to reschedule your meeting for the earliest possible date.

Room cancellation is required no less than five working days prior to the meeting date. Failure to notify the office manager or his/her designee may prevent the organization from future use.
